

Relevance by the sea
Brighton
6th November 2019

Programme

Time	Title	Speaker
9.00	Welcome and introduction	Tim Wharton
9.15	The challenges of producing an explanatory account of metonymy	Deirdre Wilson
9.35	Pragmatic development, sense conventions and non-literal uses of language	Ingrid L. Falkum
9.55	Metaphor, non-propositional effects and meaning-making in L2	Elly Ifantidou
10.15	Is free enrichment always that free? Revisiting ad hoc concept construction	Manuel Padilla Cruz
10.35	Roundtable discussion	All participants
11.00	Coffee break
11.20	Pragmatics and writing	Billy Clark
11.40	Favourites, likes and retweets: relevance and ostensive communication online	Kate Scott
12.00	Looking into the eyes for onomatopoeia	Ryoko Sasamoto
12.20	Roundtable discussion	All participants
12:40	Lunch
1.45	Relevance explains the strawman fallacy	Louis de Saussure
2.05	The communicative nature of human language: an evolutionary perspective	Stavros Assimakopoulos
2.25	Unintentionally sending a message – the extended Gricean model	Constant Bonard
2.45	Affective science, emotion and relevance	Daniel Dukes & Tim Wharton
3.05	Meaning non-verbally: communication in people with aphasia	Caroline Jagoe & Tim Wharton
3.25	Coffee break
3.45 – 5.00	Roundtable discussion	All participants